GUIDELINES

Dear Teachers,

Welcome to the year 2016.

We are happy to meet every children minister at their duty posts. This year, we are changing our caption style to create excitement in the hearts of our children. Our topics will be framed in such a way that it will capture the attention of the children and attract their interest to know more. As such, most of our topics and lesson will come as a catchy phrase. Please work with us, to reach our children spirit, soul and body.

This manual comprises of 12 topics, one for each month. Each topic has three lessons. This manual can be downloaded from the website. Furthermore, each month's topic has been adapted into activities in the children's workbook.

The junior class starts from ages 2 – 6 years old and their workbook comprises of colouring activities. The senior classes start from 7years and above and their workbook consists of creative activities adapted from the month's topic.

Please note that this outline is a guide for teachers. Prayerfully prepare your lessons to suit the age of your children. Let the Holy Spirit help you throughout 2016.

We decided to use the NIV version for the bible memory verses for easy understanding.

Have a wonderful Sunday school in 2016.

Aim: To let the children know that God placed them on this earth for His purpose and by His purpose. He has a plan for their lives.

Introduction

- The third day, God gathered the waters to one side separating it from the dry land he called the waters sea and the dry land earth.
- On the fourth day, God made the sun to give light in the day and the moon and the stars to give light in the night.
- The fifth day, God put all kinds of sea life in the seas and all kinds of birds in the sky.
- On the sixth day, God made all kinds of animals; cattle, reptiles, wild animals etc and puts them on the earth.
- God also made man in His image, just like Him reflecting His nature.
- God blessed man telling him to prosper, reproduce and fill the earth.
- God made man to be in charge of the fish in the water, the birds in the sky and every living thing on the earth, giving him the plants and trees for food.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION TO THE SAVED CHILD

John and his two younger siblings lived in the city with their mum. One day their mum told them that she would be travelling overseas to study for two years. They started to cry because they knew they would miss her a lot. Mum assured them that she would keep in touch regularly. She also assured them that their favourite aunty would live with them while she is away. She explained to them that their trip was for the good of the family. In their little hearts they reluctantly agreed. They were excited and were looking forward to the coming of their aunty because they knew she would always be there until their mum returns.

A day came when there was, only one ice cream left. Jane desired to take the ice cream as usual, but she remembered that her mum had warned them to always wait for her to decide what to do if the ice cream would not go round everyone.  2. The flesh (our own desire to do wrong) Rom 7: 18
 3. The devil (God’s enemy who wants us to do wrong) 1Peter5:8

Main Emphasis: God wants you to always speak the truth and do what is right always.

LESSON 1: Buy the Truth and Sell it Not

Bible Text: Genesis 39: 1-23

SEQUENCE OF EVENTS

- The Lord made Joseph successful as a slave to Potiphar.
- Joseph's master promoted him to a ruler in his household.
- Potiphar trusted Joseph with all he had.
- Potiphar's wife thought Joseph was good looking and wanted him to go to bed with her.
- Joseph refused to do this great wickedness and sin against God.
- Joseph resisted as Potiphar's wife continued to tempt him.
- One day, as he was working in the house, Potiphar's wife grabbed his coat sleeve and again tempted him to do wrong with her.
- Joseph slipped out of his coat and ran from the house.
- Potiphar's wife lashed out at Joseph by lying against him to the men of the house.
- Angrily, Potiphar stripped Joseph of his position and threw him into prison for something he did not do.

Conclusion

God was with Joseph even in prison. He honoured him for saying no to sin. He gave him favour in the sight of the prison keeper who put Joseph in charge of the prison.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION TO THE SAVED CHILD

- Refuse to accept anything less than what you know is right in your heart. Jesus is in your heart. He lives in you to give you the power to say "No" to temptation. I John 4:4
- When you are tempted to look at dirty pictures or watch dirty movies, say "No".

- If someone is touching parts of your body that you know they should not touch, stop them and make sure you are never alone with the person. Do not be afraid to tell an adult you can trust about it.
- When someone asks you to do what God says is wrong, run away from temptation, just like Joseph did. God says flee from sexual immorality. I Corinthians 6:18
- God made your body in a wonderful way so that when you grow up you can enjoy being married. God wants you to keep yourself pure till then.
- Be truthful to God and to yourself. Obey God's word even in difficult situations. Genesis 39: 8-9

Daniel (God is my Judge) – Belteshazzar – May Bel protect his life life)

Hananiah (God is Gracious) – Shedrach (Command of Aku)

Mishael (who is what God is?) – Meshach (I am of little account)

Azariah (The Lord has Helped) – Abednego – (Servant of Nego)

Main Emphasis: Always stand by what you know is the truth and is right.

Introduction

Ask the children if anyone has ever asked them to do something that is obviously very wrong or harmful. It could be their friends, parents, and teachers. Ask them if they would do it to please them or refuse to do it and please God.

- Fearing for his life, the chief eunuch was not ready to give Daniel permission not to eat the king's food.
- Daniel requested for a ten day test of eating only vegetables and water, which they were granted.
- The four Hebrew men young men passed the test and were allowed to continue their diet for three years.
- God gave them knowledge, skill in learning and wisdom and when the king interviewed them he discovered that their wisdom was superior.
- God honoured Daniel and his friends by allowing them to serve before the king who found them wiser than anyone else in the land.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION TO THE SAVED CHILD

- As a child of God, when you stand on His word, He will give you the ability to speak the truth and stand up for what is right. Daniel 1:1-20
- Learn how to take decisions that would please God. Daniel chose not to eat that which he knew would displease God even though the food was enticing. The king offered his food and drink first to a heathen god. For Daniel and his friends to accept food offered first to idols would indicate that they believed in those false gods.
- The Babylonians changed the boy's names because they wanted the Hebrew boys to forget their God. The four youths knew God. A name change could not make them forget Him. Do not allow anything to make you forget your God.
- Refuse to take things into your mind that would defile or make you impure because the Holy Spirit dwells in you. Where He dwells should not be defiled. I Corinthians 6: 19-20
- Telling the truth and standing by what you believe is right according to the word of God is a godly virtue which God expects us to live by. I Timothy 6: 11.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION TO THE UNSAVED CHILD

Make Jesus your friend and He will help you to stand for the truth and what you believe is right according to His word.

- Some believers sold their land or other possessions giving the money to the apostles for those in need. No one was forced to give. They did it out of the goodness of their heart.
- Ananias and Sapphira sold a piece of land voluntarily. No one forced them.
- Ananias and Sapphira, desiring praise, schemed to give only part of the money they made out of selling their land and said they were giving all.
- When Ananias lied pretending to give the apostles all the money, Peter confronted him that he had allowed Satan to control him, causing him to lie to the Holy Spirit. Then Ananias fell down and died.
- Later, his wife Sapphira came, not knowing what had happened.
- When asked, she repeated her husband's lie. Peter told her that she had not just lied to him but also lied to the Holy Spirit. She also fell down and died.
- Seeing God's severe discipline on Ananias and Sapphira, because they tried to deceive God. Everyone who heard developed a great fear of God.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION TO SAVED CHILD

- As a child of God, when you lie, you allow Satan to control you.
- Lying is an ungodly character. You cannot impress God by lying. Acts 5:2-5
- When you lie, you are a hypocrite.
- As a child of God, you do not have to be a hypocrite like Ananias and Sapphira. God does not tolerate hypocrisy. Acts 5:2-9

- Lying is a sin.
- When you lie once, it becomes difficult for anyone to trust you again.

I am a chosen generation
A royal priesthood

Who has called us
Out of darkness 2x
Into His marvelous light 2x

TOPIC: THE GLUE THAT HOLDS TOGETHER (TEAM WORK)

MEMORY VERSE: Ecclesiastes 4: 9-10

Two are better than one, because they have a good return for their labour: If either of them falls down, one can help the other up. But pity anyone who falls and has no one to help them up.

INTRODUCTION

Teachers bring a broom to the class to teach this topic. Pull out one broom stick. Ask a child to sweep with it. After he has tried using it, then give him the whole bundle of broom to sweep with. Ask the children to pass comments about it.

- There is opportunity for everyone in the household of God to function in full capacity and so, there is no need for competition. Ephesians 4:7.
- We must be committed and remain focused to achieve our common goal as a team for Christ. Gen. 11 : 4.
- We must continue to glue to Jesus Christ to keep the work moving.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION TO THE UNSAVED CHILD

You cannot be glued to Jesus Christ unless you have a relationship with him and that is by making him your friend. You cannot write and agree with others in the household of God unless you make Jesus your friend.

CONCLUSION

Together we will stand but divided we will fall.

LESSON 2: MAKING THE TEAM WORK

BIBLE TEXT: Nehemiah 2: 1-20, 6: 15-16

- A good team player encourages and prays for the weaker ones. Mark 1:38, Matthew 4:19

PRACTICAL APPLICATION TO THE UNSAVED CHILD

Partner with Jesus as a good team player. Make him your friend.

LESSON 3: VIRTUES OF A TEAM

A strong and united team that will endure until Christ comes must possess the following:

- Love: Be passionate and love one another just as Christ loved the church and gave His life for it. Romans 12:10

- Respect: Respect the ideas and opinion of other team players when it is in line with God's word. Romans 13:7
- Responsibility: Be responsible for what happens in the team. Take responsibility for whatever needs to be done. Do not shift responsibilities to others. Whatever has been placed in your care must be done.

- Accountability: Be accountable to God first then to one another. Every activity of the team should be accounted by everyone. Romans 14:12b

- Forgiveness: Offenses will come but they can be overcome by deciding to forgive one another. II Corinthians 2:10
- Equality: We are all equal in the sight of God, so treat everyone the same. II Corinthians 8:14
- Communication: A result-oriented, team needs effective communication among members. All members must have access to timely information..
- Commitment: A good team needs commitment from all the members. Having a strong team is not a matter of convenience. It takes a great sacrifice on the part of the members.

CONCLUSION

A team founded on the fear of God will achieve purpose.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION TO THE UNSAVED CHILD.

So also does God notice that you do not have on the garment of salvation which he made available, wear the garment of salvation provided by God by making Jesus your friend. Then watch the Holy Spirit produce God's Holy nature in you to help you live a Holy life.

LESSON 2: BLOWN AWAY (God is Love)

INTRODUCTION

Oh, I just hate this house I'm going to run away one day. Everyone is always telling me what to do. I am always given a lot of chores to do. It's always Henry do this, Henry do that. I'm not even allowed to watch television anytime I want.

Have you ever felt like running away because you were tired of living at home? Do you think your friends are better treated in their homes and they have better things? If you think all the time about the things you don't have instead of the good things you have, you'll become unhappy just like the boy in the story. Life looked better outside to him.

BIBLE TEXT: Luke 15:11-32

Main Emphasis: Love others the way God loves you unconditionally.

SEQUENCE OF EVENTS.

- A wealthy man had two sons; the younger demanded his inheritance so he could live on his own.
- The father granted his son's request and divided the inheritance.
- The younger son travelled to a far country and wasted his money.
- After the son had spent all he had, a famine spread across the land.
- The only work the son could find was a job - feeding pigs.
- Starving, the son desired to eat the food he was feeding the pigs.
- Suddenly, the son realized his sin against God and his father and decided to return home to ask for a position as a hired servant.
- While the boy was still a great way off, his father ran to meet him.
- The son confessed his sin and unworthiness to his joyful father.
- Showing his full acceptance and forgiveness the father celebrated the return of his much loved son.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION TO THE SAVED CHILD

- God loves you so much - His love blows you away. It is called agape, that means unconditional love. God loves and blesses you not because you deserved or earned it but because that is the way He is. God is love. 1 John 4:8. Just like the father in our story God lets us enjoy everything that belongs to Him.

- God's love is not just a feeling it is an action. It is a decision to care about others, putting them before yourself, offering them help when they need it. 1 John 3: 18.
- God loves you and wants you to show this love to others, as a part of God's family if you truly love God, you will show this love to others. Ask God to help you start noticing people in need around you. Look for ways to help them.
- When people see you doing this, it shows that you are a friend of Jesus. John 13:35.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION TO THE UNSAVED CHILD.

God loves you so much. He longs for you to turn away from your foolish sinful ways just as this father longed for the son he loved to return to him. Accept God's unconditional love by making Jesus your friend today. Only when you do this can you truly love God and show his love to others.
